From the Pastor

“Called to Be the Church,” will be our series that we are going to launch into this spring, beginning May 5! This series will invite us to explore who we are, what our community needs, and how we can serve our community. My hope is that this will begin our journey of building relationships as a church with the surrounding communities. If we are honest, the past still haunts our little church but the good news is...we can learn from our past and begin to heal, grow and thrive again as a church community. We can build relationships again. Relationships built on love, compassion and trust.

This series will remind us of who we are as Christians and what lies at the core of our communities of faith—things like awe and wonder, togetherness and community, enough for all, the glad breaking of bread, and praising God.

These are things we see reflected and modeled for us in the Early Church as recounted to us in Chapter 2 of the Acts of the Apostles.

Over five weeks, we will dive into some of the stories from Acts, as well as some of Jesus’ stories of the Kingdom of God, and see what they have to teach us, or remind us, about what it means to be a community of faith.

If you have been a part of this worship community for a long time, Called to Be the Church: The Early Church in Eastertide might be like looking through an old photo album, looking back on younger (but not necessarily simpler) days. Scripture reminds us of who and whose we are, and the hopes God has for us—to flourish and serve as God’s hands and feet in the world.

If you are new to this worship community, perhaps The Early Church in Eastertide might be an invitation into fuller participation in the kind of dynamic and Spirit-filled togetherness you’ve been longing for. All throughout Acts, we see the Spirit adding to the community those who feel compelled by God’s vision of wholeness and peace.

Whether our community is big or small, young or old, urban or rural, or digital, or a mixture of all the above, we are all called as Christians to form the kinds of communities that are faithful to God’s Word and engaged in God’s mission.

May this be the beginning of believing that the impossible is possible!

Pastor Jim

June 7 (FR) – June 9 (SU) at the Green
Lake Conference Center.

Keynote address: Rev. Shari Prestemon

When the world is gripped by war and unrest, and when fears and anxieties swirl around us in the Church and in our own lives, it's tempting to tune it all out. How can we stay present, and tune in to hear the stories of others? How is God speaking to us even amidst the messiness?

Our church is allowed two persons as dedegates. Others may come as visitors.

Notes from the Middle

In October 2012, I journeyed to Lebanon, Kansas.

Today, I am standing in the middle of America. Located in a park near the junction of AA Road and 130 Road, the geographical marker – pictured above – marks the exact center of the contiguous 48 United States. If you were to make a cardboard cutout of the (lower 48) United States and balance it on a pin, the pin would puncture the cardboard right here.

On a cool October afternoon, I sat down at a picnic table in the park. I sense the awesome isolation of this place. The nearest town, Lebanon, Kansas, is two miles to the southeast. Its water tower and grain silos beckon. A solitary farmstead sits in the valley across from the park. In every other direction, harvested fields reach to the horizon. The tourists, if there were any, have left for the season. In some ways this place is like many others in America's heartland; and yet, by location alone, it is very special. At this very moment, I, alone, am the most central person in America! Lest I be overcome with visions of great power and grandeur, I humble myself with the realization that this temporary "power" is one of location only. Too soon, I will again be off-center – just like everyone else.

The fact is that all of us are born off-center; not just in physical location, but in our relationship with God. A long time ago, when God had finished creating the world, He made a special place at the center of His creation. Adam and Eve knew it as "Eden." They lived a good, well-centered life. God "walked" with them in the garden and knew them personally (Genesis 3:8). Long story short, Adam and Eve sinned against God by not following His directions. Then were banned from the Garden of Eden. Since then, Adam's descendants – including us – have been living life off-center. All "religions"* developed since those days have made attempts to get us back on-center and reconcile us to the will of God. All have been the vain attempts of us humans, and all have ultimately failed.

[*I define "religion" as those attempts by humanity to try to reach out to God: to reconcile ourselves to God. In Christianity ALONE, God reaches down to us, completing the "circuit." In that sense, and perhaps that sense alone, "Christianity" is NOT a religion.]

Is there a way to again be reconciled to the will of God, a way to get back on-center with the life God intends for us to live? YES! Like Dorothy, in the "Wizard of Oz," do we need to go back to Kansas to return to the center of God's will? NO! Before we chalk off our failure to be reconciled to God as just another part of our lowly human condition, and write ourselves off as unworthy of knowing our creator, know this... Even while we were failing in our attempt to reach God, He has already reached down to us. God, and God alone, has given us a "way" to get back on-center with Him! (Romans 5: 8)

That "way" is the true message of the Christmas Story. The story begins some 2,000 years ago in a small backwater town of the mighty Roman Empire: Bethlehem. God provided a way for us to be reconciled to Him and get back on-center with His will. He also gave us a way to get back the eternal life that Adam lost at the "closed gates" to Eden. He sent His only son, Jesus, to us; not as a king or mighty warrior, but as one born in a lowly manger. The story, as we know it, is very serene. Angels make a special visit, Mary and Joseph adore their newborn son, shepherds come to worship Him and wise men bring gifts. Then we leave the Christmas Program and go home. We leave the baby Jesus in the manger! Wait people! There is more to the story!

Jesus grew up and lived among us, sharing our human condition. He taught God's message in the synagogues and on the hillsides; he cared for people and healed their conditions. He showed us how to get back on-center with our God and showed us the way to eternal life with Him, in His "kingdom." Then one day, His mission on earth was fulfilled. Fearing competition to the Emperor's worldly authority, those authorities prosecuted God's son and nailed Him, as a common criminal, to a cross. By "Good" Friday afternoon, Jesus was dead. That evening, He was lying in a tomb. The Roman officials gave a sigh of relief: STORY OVER!

WRONG! If all we had were the Christmas Story and a well-lived life, then Jesus is no more than just another great profit. Mohammed is dead! Buddha is dead! ... "Why do you seek the living among the dead?" "...He is not here..." "...He has risen,..." (Luke 24:5; Mark 16:6) That first Easter Sunday morning, the resurrected Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene and the disciples.

We still live with our human conditions. We continue to disobey God's will. But now, because of the resurrection, we can be reconciled, again, to God; we can get back on-center with His will; and one day we can have eternal life in paradise. "For God so loved the world, that WHOEVER believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life." (John 3:16)

Meet The King Family

David, Danielle, James (7), and Gracie (6)

In the heart of our church community lies a family who exemplifies the essence of togetherness, entrepreneurial spirit, faithfulness, and warmth. Recently, they made a significant move by purchasing a home in Genesee and embarking on a journey of building a small family owned business. In 2023 Sugar Maple Roofing LLC was created with the idea to help the community and leave a legacy for their family. They chose the name Sugar Maple Roofing LLC as a homage to Wisconsin's state tree, the Sugar Maple, symbolizes their deep affection for the state, its hardworking people, and their steadfast dedication to delivering exceptional service. During their downtime from serving their customers, the family finds solace and joy at the lake indulging in activities such as paddle boarding, kayaking, and fishing. They also enjoy pursuits like golf, camping adventures, and simply relishing moments. Let's join in welcoming the King family with open arms.

If you find yourself or a neighbor in need of top-notch exterior services, don't hesitate to reach out to the King Family. Whether it's roofing services or a friendly chat, they're just a call away.

CINCO de MAYO

Most people don't know that back in 1912, Hellmann's mayonnaise was manufactured in England. In fact, the Titanic was carrying 12,000 jars of the condiment scheduled for delivery in Vera Cruz, Mexico, which was to be the next port of call for the great ship after its stop in New York.

This would have been the largest single shipment of mayonnaise ever delivered to Mexico. But as we know, the great ship did not make it to New York. The ship hit an iceberg and sank, and the cargo was lost forever.

The people of Mexico, who were crazy about mayonnaise, and were eagerly awaiting its delivery, were disconsolate at the loss. Their anguish was so great, that they declared a National Day of Mourning, which they still observe to this day.

The National Day of Mourning occurs each year on May 5th and is known, of course, as Sinko de Mayo.
